What:

A versatile and eminently enjoyable Pinot Grigio from northern Italy.

Food Pairings:

A versatile wine that's a good match for seafood, grilled fish, salads and white meat dishes.

Where:

Produced from selected Pinot Grigio grapes grown on hillside vineyards in Provincia di Pavia, northern Italy. The grapes are hand harvested at the start of September crushed, gently pressed and the juice allowed to settle and clarify before cool fermentation between 61o to 64oF in stainless steel tanks. The wine is bottled young after three to six months aging on fine lees in stainless steel.

Tasting Note:

A versatile wine that's a good match for seafood, grilled fish, salads and white meat dishes.
